

Position statement on heavy motor gross vehicle mass (GVM)

NZTA has issued a position statement that clarifies when a heavy vehicle's recorded gross vehicle mass (GVM) may be changed, and when it must remain unchanged. The statement explains how GVM is established and recorded in New Zealand, consistent with legislation and the Director of Land Transport's operational policies. It is relevant to anyone importing, purchasing, modifying or certifying a heavy vehicle.

Choosing a heavy vehicle with the right GVM